Unit 1

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.1. Introduction.

1. accept /ək'sept/ (v) – to agree to take smt; to say yes to an offer or invitation. I am happy to accept your invitation.
   acceptance /ək'septəns/ (n) – general agreement that smt is satisfactory or right. His ideas slowly gained acceptance.
   to accept credit cards/responsibility/apology/idea/invitation
2. achieve /əˈtʃiːv/ (v) – to succeed in finishing something or reaching an aim, especially after a lot of work or effort. I've been working all day, but I feel as if I've achieved nothing.
   achievement /əˈtʃiːvmənt/ (n) – smt very good and difficult that you have succeeded in doing. An Olympic silver medal is a great achievement for one so young.
   to achieve one's goal/ambition, to achieve result
3. apply /əˈplaɪ/ (v) for - to ask for something, usually officially, especially in writing or by sending in a form. My friend also wants to apply for this new course.
   to apply for a job/a course/a grant application (n) Applications for study at the University in 2025 are online and will be open up on 2 April 2024.
   letter of application
4. attend /ə'tend/ (v) – to go to an event, place, etc.; to go officially and usually regularly to a place. I attended the classes/seminars/lectures for a month or two.
   attendance /ə'tendəns/ (n) – the number of people who are present at a place or an event; the act of being present at smt, especially work. Attendance at this meeting is necessary (obligatory) to attend a lecture/a seminar/a class/a meeting/ a course
5. be sure about smt /ʃʊr/ (adj) – to be certain; without any doubt. Are you sure you've done everything you could?
   make sure (phrase) – pay special attention to something. I want to make sure that they have received your documents.
6. clear /klɪər/ (adj) – easy to understand, hear, read, or see. Syn.. apparent, obvious. C*lear instructions / directions/etc.*
   clarify /ˈklærɪfaɪ/ (v) – to make smt clear or easier to understand by giving more details or a simpler explanation. Could you clarify the first point please? I don't understand it completely.
   clarification /ˌklærɪfɪˈkeɪʃən/ (n) – an explanation or more details that makes smt clear or easier to understand. Some additional clarification of your opinion is needed.
   Is that clear? clear instructions, to clarify smt to smb.
7. complete /kəmˈpliːt/ (v) – to make whole or perfect. She will complete her studies in France.
   completion /kəmˈpliːʃn/ (n) – the act of finishing or completing something completion of the course / project
8. confidence /ˈkɒnfɪdəns/ (n) – the quality of being certain of your abilities or of having trust in people, plans, or the future. Without confidence there is no friendship.
   self-confidence /ˌselfˈkɒnfɪdəns/ (n) - the belief that you can do things well and that other people respect you. The students' self-confidence was improved, and they gained valuable knowledge of university life.
   confident /ˈkɒn.fɪ.dənt/ (adj) – being certain of your abilities or having trust in people, plans, or the future. Syn. certain, assured. Are you confident that enough people will attend the event?

self-confident /ˌselfˈkɒnfɪdənt/ (adj) – behaving calmly because you have no doubts about your ability or knowledge. At school he was popular and self-confident, and we weren't surprised at his later success.
to be confident about/of smt, to be confident in smb.
to have complete confidence in smb.

9. degree /dɪˈgriː/ (n) – a course of study at a college or university, or the qualification given to a student after graduation (finishing his or her studies). She has physics degree/ a degree in physics.
to have a degree in smt bachelor degree /ˈbætʃələz dɪgriː/ – the first degree that you get when you study at a university. Bachelor's degrees include Bachelor of Arts (BA) and Bachelor of Science (BSc).
master's degree /ˈmɑːstəz dɪgriː/- a further university degree that you study for after a first degree.
10. drop /drɒp/ out (phrasal verb) – to stop doing something before you have completely finished. If a student drops out, they stop going to classes before they have finished their course. He dropped out of school when he was 16.
11. enrol / ɪnˈrəʊl (v) – to put or register someone or yourself in the list of members of a course, college, etc. I enrolled in the programming course. He enrolled at the University in 1954.
12. graduate /ˈgrædʒueɪt/ (v) – to complete a university degree successfully. She graduated from Manchester University in 2001.
graduate /ˈgrædʒuət/ (n) – a person who has finished their college or university education. According to the reports, graduates of these universities are the most qualified specialists in Russia.
13. improve /ɪmˈpruːv/ (v) – to (cause smt to) get better. I thought the best way to improve my English was to live in England.
improvement /ɪmˈpruːvmənt/ (n) – a situation when smt gets better or when you make it better. Examples. improvement in the economy, home improvements.
signs of improvement, to show/see improvement

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.2. The benefits of higher education (Part 1).

1. average /ˈævərɪdʒ/ (n) – a standard or level that is typical or usual. His marks in English are below average this semester.
on average. On average, people who study languages live longer than people who don't.
2. benefit /ˈbenɪfɪt/ (n) – a helpful or good effect. He's had the benefit of an expensive education and yet he continues to work as a waiter.
to get (much) benefit from beneficial to (adj) – resulting in good; advantageous. The process was beneficial to both student and institute.
3. employee /emplɔɪˈiː / (n) – a person who is paid to work for someone else. He is the best employee of the company.
employ /ɪmˈplɔɪ/ (v) – to have someone work or do a job for you and pay them for it. How many people does your company employ?
employer /ɪmˈplɔɪər/ (n) – a person or organization that employs people. I like my job and Mr. White is very good employer.
employment /ɪmˈplɔɪmənt/ (n) – the fact of having a job. The new factory will give employment for about a hundred people.
to be in employment – to have a job
4. income /ˈɪŋkʌm/ (n) – money that you get from doing work. Average incomes have risen by 4.5 percent over the past year.

an income of, to earn/have /receive (an) income, high/low income, extra income

5. increase /ɪnˈkriːs/(v) – to (make something) become larger in amount or size. The cost of the project has increased since it began.
   increase /ˈɪnkriːs/ (n) – a rise in the amount or size of something. Any increase in production will be helpful.
6. present /prɪˈzent/ (v) – to give or make something known. This book presents new ideas of physicists and their research.
   to present somebody with something to present something to somebody
7. research /rɪˈsɜːtʃ/ (n) – a detailed study of a subject, especially in order to discover (new) information or reach a (new) understanding. They are carrying out /conducting/ doing some fascinating research into/ on the language of dolphins.
   to carry out/to conduct/to do research into/on something Movement up.

go up
grow/growth
jump (n, v)
increase (n, v)
rocket (v)
shoot up
surge /sɜːdʒ/ (n, v)

Movement down.

decline (n, v)
decrease (n, v)
sink (v)
go down
plunge (n, v)
plummet (v)
trail off (phrasal v)

Prepositions.

sales fell to 150 in March sales fell by 50%

Adverbs and intensifiers.
gently = slightly = gradually = steadily = slowly sharply = steeply – suddenly and quickly

No movement.

remain steady/stable/constant stabilize
be unchanged

Tops and bottoms.

reach a peak/ the highest level peak (v)
reach a bottom / the lowest level fall to a low

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.2. Home Reading (Part 2)

1. acquire /əˈkwaɪər/ (v) – to gain possession of something, or to learn a new skill or habit. She hopes to acquire fluency in French before she moves to Paris next year.
   acquisition /ækwɪˈzɪʃn/ (n) – the process of acquiring of a new skill or habit
2. contribute /kənˈtrɪbjuːt/ (v) – to give something (money, time, effort, ideas) to a shared cause or goal. Everyone in the team is expected to contribute ideas during the brainstorming session.
   contribution /ˌkɒn.trɪˈbjuʃn/ (n) – something that you contribute
3. extend /ɪkˈstend/ (v) – to make something longer, larger. The manager decided to extend the project deadline by two weeks to ensure better quality.
4. gain /geɪn/ (v) – to get or achieve something desirable (knowledge, power, profit, or experience). Through hard work and practice, you will gain confidence in public speaking.
   to gain knowledge/experience/data
5. provide /prəʊˈvaɪd/ (v) - to supply (give) smt to smb. This booklet provides useful information about local services.
   provide smt (information/ opportunity/ evidence) provide smt for smb
6. sufficient /səˈfɪʃnt/ (adj) – enough for a particular purpose. The company's budget was sufficient to cover the cost of new software.
   insufficient (adj) – not enough

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.3. Types of learning.

1. additional /əˈdɪʃənl/ (adj) - more than was first mentioned or is usual. He read additional books to understand the theory better.
   syn extra additional data/ information/ benefits/ reading/ resources/
2. aim /eɪm/(v) - to try or plan to achieve something aim for something. Our football team is aiming for the top this season.
   aim at doing something. A new course aim at improving student's programming skills.
   aim to do something. She is aiming to do additional online course this semester.
3. available /əˈveɪləbl/ (adj) – that you can get, buy or find. This data is still available for download on the company's website.
   be/ become/ make smt available easily/ widely available be available for smb
4. certain /ˈsɜːtn/ (adj) - used to mention a particular thing, person or group without giving any more details. For a certain reason he wasn't able to attend the lecture.
   to a certain extent. That's true, to a certain extent.
5. convenient /kənˈviːniənt/ (adj) – useful, easy or quick to do; not causing problems. It's convenient to translate the word online.
   convenient for smb/ smt Is this time convenient for you?
   it is convenient for smb to do smt It's much more convenient for me to travel by plane.
6. encourage /ɪnˈkʌrɪdʒ/ (v) – to give smb. support, courage or hope. My parents have always encouraged me in my choice of career.
   encourage smb in smt My parents have always encouraged me in my choice of career.
   encourage smb to do smt The teacher encouraged students to participate in discussion.
7. flexibility /ˌfleksəˈbɪləti/ (n) – the ability to change to suit new conditions or situations. The online learning system offers a much greater degree of flexibility in organizing the educational process.

flexible (adj) – able to make changes. The part-time job offers flexible working hours.

8. however /haʊˈevə(r)/ (adv) - used to introduce a statement that contrasts with something that has just been said. He felt sick, however, he went to the lecture and tried to concentrate.
9. meet a need - to do something that someone wants, needs, or expects you to do. Online courses are aimed to meet the needs of different students.
   meet standards/ deadlines/ requirements
10. participation /pɑːˌtɪsɪˈpeɪʃn/ (n) – the act of taking part in an activity or event; participate (v) – to take part in or become involved in an activity participate in a study/ a programme/ an activity 11. remote /rɪˈməʊt/ (adj) – used to speak about activity that is done away from the place where it usually happens, especially by means of technology. Distance education is remote, it can connect students to universities worldwide.
    remote learning/ working. During the Covid-19 pandemic teachers and students got used to remote learning.
    remotely (adv) – at a distance in time and space. Online education allows students to get a degree remotely in almost any specialty.
12. responsible for smb / smt/ doing smt (adj) – having control or duty of doing smt or taking care of smb / smt Both parents are equally responsible for raising the children.
    responsibility for smb / smt / doing smt (n) – a duty to deal with or take care of smb /smt. The professor encouraged students to share responsibility for shaping the content of the course.
13. significant /sɪgˈnɪfɪkənt/ (adj) – important, large, or great, especially in leading to a different result or to an important change. A significant majority of college students took classes online in fall 2020 because of the Covid-19 pandemic.
14. support (smb/ smt) /səˈpɔːt/ (v) – to help or encourage somebody/something by saying or showing that you agree with them/it. Teachers should always support and encourage their students. In the webinar experienced teachers discussed how to support students on online courses.
15. technique /tekˈniːk/ (n) – a way of doing an activity that needs skill. We have developed a new technique for detecting errors in the manufacturing process.
    technique for doing smt Teachers learn various techniques for encouraging students to memorize new words.

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.4. Education and AI

1. disrupt /dɪsˈrʌpt/ (v) – to interrupt something and stop it from continuing as usual. The loud noise disrupted the class and the teacher had to stop the lesson.
   disruption /dɪsˈrʌpʃən/ (n) – a situation in which something is interrupted or stopped from continuing as usual. The disruption caused by the fire alarm made us lose 20 minutes of class time.
   to disrupt a class / to cause disruption / major disruption / disruption to something
2. accuse /əˈkjuːz/ (v) – to say that someone has done something wrong or illegal. The teacher accused the student of copying his friend's homework.
   accusation /ˌækjəˈzeɪʃən/ (n) – a statement saying that someone has done something wrong. She denied the accusation that she had used AI to write her essay.
   to accuse someone of (doing) something / to face an accusation / false accusation
3. embrace /ɪmˈbreɪs/ (v) – to accept or adopt something willingly; also, to hold someone closely in your arms. Many companies have embraced new technology to improve their work.
   to embrace change / to embrace new ideas / to embrace technology / to embrace a challenge

4. foolproof /ˈfuːlpruːf/ (adj) – so simple or well-designed that it cannot be used wrongly or fail. The instructions are foolproof, so anyone can assemble the furniture without help.
   a foolproof plan / a foolproof method / foolproof software / to be foolproof
5. outpace /ˌaʊtˈpeɪs/ (v) – to go or grow faster than something; to surpass or overtake. The demand for new smartphones continues to outpace the supply.
   to outpace competitors / to outpace demand / to outpace growth / to outpace ability 6. allege /əˈledʒ/ (v) – to say that someone has done something illegal or wrong without giving proof. The student alleged that the AI detector had made a mistake.
   allegation /ˌæləˈgeɪʃən/ (n) – a statement that someone has done something wrong or illegal, but without proof. The allegation of cheating was investigated by the university.
   to allege that... / to allege something / an allegation of (something) / to deny an allegation
7. suspicion /səˈspɪʃən/ (n) – a feeling or belief that something is possible, likely, or true, especially something wrong; doubt or mistrust. I have a suspicion that someone has been using my computer without permission.
   suspicious /səˈspɪʃəs/ (adj) – making you feel that something is wrong or that someone is guilty. The teacher became suspicious when she saw two students with the same answers.
   to have a suspicion / under suspicion / a strong suspicion / to raise suspicion
8. violation /ˌvaɪəˈleɪʃən/ (n) – the act of breaking or failing to obey a law, rule, or agreement. Using a phone during the exam is a violation of the school rules.
   violate /ˈvaɪ.əleɪt/ (v) – to break or disobey a law, rule, or agreement. If you violate the rules, you will face consequences.
   a violation of something / a serious violation / to commit a violation / a violation of privacy 9. detection /dɪˈtekʃən/ (n) – the act of discovering or identifying something that is hidden or not easy to see. Early detection of problems can help prevent bigger issues.
   detect /dɪˈtekt/ (v) – to discover or notice something, especially something that is not easy to see. The software is designed to detect AI-generated writing.
   detection software / to detect something / detection methods / early detection
10. plagiarism /ˈpleɪdʒərɪzəm/ (n) – the act of using someone else's work or ideas and pretending they are your own. Submitting an AI-written essay as your own work is a form of plagiarism.
    plagiarize /ˈpleɪdʒəraɪz/ (v) – to copy someone else's work and pretend it is your own. If you plagiarize, you could fail the course.
    to commit plagiarism / to accuse someone of plagiarism / plagiarism policy to plagiarize someone's work

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.5. Careers of the future.

1. according to /əˈkɔːdɪŋ/ (prep) - as someone says or shows. According to recent research, many discoveries have been made in this field of science.
   according to smb/ smt
2. create /kriˈeɪt/ (v) - to make smt happen or exist. He created a wonderful meal from very few ingredients.
   create smt
3. data /ˈdeɪtə/ (n, pl) - facts or information, especially when examined and used to find out things or to make decisions. We collected available data over a 10-day period.
   collect/ obtain/ analyse data data on/ for smt
   scientific/ experimental/ historical/ published/ personal data
4. design /dɪˈzaɪn/ (v) - to draw or plan smt before making it. He designed and wrote the software (computer programs).

design smt for smb/ smt

5. develop /dɪˈveləp/ (v) - to make smt new such as a product. A science firm developed the software.
   develop smt (e.g. technology/ skills/ a product/ method/ model/ technique) developer /dɪˈveləpər/ (n) - a person or company that buys land or buildings in order to build new houses, shops, etc., or to improve the old ones, and makes a profit from doing this. A local developer is planning to build a supermarket on the site.
   software developer development /dɪˈveləpmənt/ (n) - the process of making smt new. Software development is the process programmers use to build computer programs.
   economic development
6. due to /djuː/ - because of smt. The bus was delayed (was late) due to heavy snow.
   due to smb/ smt
7. efficient /ɪˈfɪʃənt/ (adj) - working well and not wasting time or energy. The city's transport system is one of the most efficient in Europe.
   efficient worker/ equipment/ method efficient in smt
   efficiency /ɪˈfɪʃənsi/ (n) - a good use of time and energy, without wasting any. What is good in their society is the efficiency of the public services.
8. employee /ɪmˈplɔɪiː/ (n) - smb. who works for smb. else. Over the past decade, the number of employees in the company has doubled.
   employer /ɪmˈplɔɪər/ (n) - a person or organization that employs people. This company is the country's largest employer.
9. field /ˈfiːld/ (n) - an area of activity or interest, e.g. the field of history/science/medicine.
10. demand for /dɪˈmɑːnd/ (n) - a need for smt. The demand for such professionals will grow in the future.
    in demand /ɪndɪˈmɑːnd/ (adj) – wanted or needed in large numbers. Data scientists are some of the most in demand professionals in various industries.
11. make decision (on) /dɪˈsɪʒən/ (v) - to choose smt after thinking about several possibilities. She has had to make some very difficult decisions on this issue (problem).
12. manage (smt) /ˈmænɪdʒ/ (v) - to be in control of an office, shop, team, etc... He will manage the company in 2 years.
    manage a project/ team/ department/ business management /ˈmænɪdʒmənt/ (n) - the activity of running and controlling a business or similar organization time/day-to-day management 13. process /ˈprəʊses/ (v) - when a computer processes data, it does things to it so that it can be used and understood. This is where we process data.
    process smt into smt processing /ˈprəʊsesɪŋ/ (n) - working with data (information)
14. predict /prɪˈdɪkt/ (v) - to say that an event or action will happen in the future, especially as a result of knowledge or experience. No one can predict when the disease will start again.
    predict smt
    predictive /prɪˈdɪktɪv/ (adj) - used for predicting; e.g. predictive texting (a feature of a mobile phone in which words are suggested automatically while you are writing a text message).
15. replace smt with smt /rɪˈpleɪs/ - to take the place of smt, or to put smt or smb. in the place of smt or smb. else. The factory replaced most of its workers with robots. Most of the factory workers were replaced by robots.
16. solution to /səˈluːʃən/ (n) - answer to a problem. There's no easy solution to this problem.
    solve /sɒlv/ (v) - to find the answer to smt; e.g. to solve a problem/mystery/puzzle.
    solve smt (a problem / an issue/a crisis)

Target Vocabulary. Unit 1.6. Lifelong learning.

1. acquire /əˈkwaɪə/ (v) – to get or buy something. He acquired the company in 2008.
   acquisition /ækwɪˈzɪʃən/ (n) – the process of getting something. acquisition of knowledge/data; language acquisition
2. approximately /əˈprɒksɪmətli/ (adv) – close to a particular number but not exactly that number. The research took approximately two years.
   approximately equal/the same
3. compulsory /kəmˈpʌlsəri/ (adj) – something that must be done because of a law or a rule. It is compulsory for every student to attend this class.
   compulsory education/registration
4. curiosity /ˌkjʊəriˈɒsəti/ (n) – a strong wish to know or learn about something. His whole life he had a curiosity about history and natural science.
   to excite/satisfy curiosity, do smt out of curiosity curious /ˈkjʊəriəs/ (adj) – interested or having a strong wish to learn about smt. Aren't you curious about all these fascinating things that are happening around you?
   a curious child, curious fact
5. explore /ɪkˈsplɔː(r)/ (v) – to search or study something carefully in order to find out more about it. Scientists are exploring several potential methods to develop the most effective vaccine.
   exploration /ˌekspləˈreɪʃn/ (n) – These results encouraged further explorations.
   exploration of material, space/ocean exploration
6. fail (v) – to not succeed in achieving something. I failed to remember all their names.
   to fail test/exam, fail to do smt, fail an attempt to do smt failure /ˈfeɪljə(r)/ (n) – lack of success in achieving something. The whole project was a complete failure.
   cause/result in/be a failure, equipment failure
7. fulfill /fʊlˈfɪl/ (v) – to do smt that is expected, hoped for, or promised, or to cause it to happen. A school fails if it does not fulfill the needs/requirements of its students.
   to fulfill a dream/hope/a function/a contract/a promise fulfillment /fʊlˈfɪlmənt/ (n) – 1. the fact of doing smt that is necessary or smt that smb. has wanted or promised to do. Fantasy is the imaginative fulfillment of your heart's desire.
   2. a feeling of pleasure because you are happy with your life. Wisdom will help you find fulfillment in every aspect of your life.
   to gain knowledge/experience/data
8. in other words (phrase) – is used to introduce an explanation or interpretation of something that has just been said. The method is not effective – in other words, it does not work.
9. nearly /ˈnɪə.li/ (adv) – almost, not completely. It has been six months since we started our research.
   nearly identical/impossible, nearly 10 hours 10. satisfy /sætɪsfaɪ/ (v) – 1) to give somebody what they want or need. You satisfy all the requirements for this position.
    to satisfy someone's curiosity, satisfy needs/demands/standards/criteria
11. though /ðoʊ/ (conjunction) – despite the fact that; but. Though they failed most of the tests, they succeeded in the last, the most important one.
12. throughout /θruːˈaʊt/ (prep, adv) – during the whole period of something or in all parts of something. All his life he had a curiosity about history and natural science.
    throughout a year/the country/the whole world

Target vocabulary. Phrases for discussion

Agreeing	I agree with most of it. I think you're right. I totally/absolutely agree with you. I think that's true. Yes, that's true. You may be right there Disagreeing	I don't think that's quite right. I'm not sure I agree with you. I really can't accept that. I (totally) disagree with what you said. I see your point but…
Asking for clarifications	Could you explain… Give me an example of what you mean? What do you mean exactly?
Summarising and rephrasing	In short… In other words… Let me put it this way… What I'm saying is…
Asking for and giving opinions	Don't you think…? In my opinion… In my view… What do you think about… Why don't you tell us what you think? You think … , is that right?